

Reciprocating Gait Orthosis

The reciprocating gait orthosis allows step over step walking by using trunk musculature. It is custom fabricated and includes leg and foot sections connected by special hip joints to a pelvic section.

Indications:

- Muscular dystrophy, traumatic paraplegia, sacral agenesis, multiple sclerosis, cerebral palsy, osteogenesis imperfecta, and spina bifida with T12-L3 lesions.

Modern Technology. Traditional Values. Proven Techniques.