

Shoulder Stabilizer

The shoulder stabilizer is made of elastic or neoprene and Velcro. It is designed to accommodate natural motion while assisting, restricting, or stabilizing the shoulder joint depending on the need of the patient.

Indications:

- Glenohumeral joint instability, rotator cuff deficiencies, or recurrent subluxation/dislocation of the joint.

Photo courtesy of Prosthetic Laboratories

Modern Technology. Traditional Values. Proven Techniques.