

Prosthetic Socks

When using a prosthesis with any type of suspension other than suction, the patient will need to use prosthetic socks. Prosthetic socks come in a variety of thicknesses, called sock ply. The socks are necessary to maintain comfort and to fine tune the fit of the prosthesis.

Photo courtesy of Knit-Rite

Modern Technology. Traditional Values. Proven Techniques.