

Flail Arm Hinges

The flail arm hinge is used by amputees who do not have good muscular control of the residual limb. These hinges contain a spring loaded counter balance. This allows a small movement of the residual limb to create a large movement in the prosthesis.

Photo courtesy of Fillauer Companies

Modern Technology. Traditional Values. Proven Techniques.