

Shoulder Saddle and Chest Strap

A shoulder saddle is a custom made leather pad that is used to help disperse excess pressure. It is attached to a chest strap instead of an axilla loop (under the arm) to prevent excess pressure on the brachial plexus (nerves). It is often used by amputees who carry heavy objects with their prostheses.

Photos courtesy of Fillauer Companies

Modern Technology. Traditional Values. Proven Techniques.