

External Suspension Sleeve

The external suspension sleeve is for transtibial (below knee) amputees. The sleeve is made of elastic fabric, silicone, or a combination of the two that extends from the socket of the prosthesis onto the patient's thigh. The sleeve can be used alone or in conjunction with another form of suspension to keep the prosthesis attached to the patient's body.

Photo courtesy of Cascade

Modern Technology. Traditional Values. Proven Techniques.