

Multi Axis Foot

The multi axis foot provides inversion, eversion and rotation at the ankle of the prosthesis. This type of foot is typically prescribed for active prosthetic patients (K3, K4) who need to traverse uneven surfaces.

