

Pelite Insert

A Pelite insert is a removable dense foam insert in the socket of the prosthesis. It is worn over prosthetic socks and is sometimes used in conjunction with another insert. Its function is to protect the patient's limb and to allow for modifications to the fit of the prosthesis due to fluctuation in the volume of the residual limb.

Photo courtesy of Prosthetic Laboratories

Modern Technology. Traditional Values. Proven Techniques.